Sharing is Caring!

The 2025 KSDE Assessment Conference: Connecting the Dots ... FOR Learning will offer real-world practice sessions featuring teachers, teams, and systems from across Kansas that have embraced proven assessment practices to support teaching and learning. Learn more about how formative assessments are the foundation to a Balanced Assessment System. Targeted audiences include teachers, leaders, and technical support personnel from school districts in Kansas.

Featuring

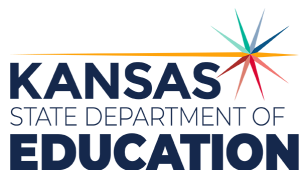

Caroline Wylie, Ph.D.

Caroline Wylie, Ph.D., is a national expert on formative assessment, the role it plays within balanced assessment systems, and the learning support that teachers need to engage in these practices with their students. Caroline has published multiple books on formative assessment including co-authoring Formative Assessment in the Disciplines: Framing a Continuum of Professional Learning with Margaret Heritage.

Interested in sharing your knowledge with other Kansas educators?

Submit a proposal! All proposals are due by Jan. 31, 2025. Notification of acceptance or denial will be sent out no later than Feb. 7, 2025. Presenters will receive a reduced registration rate.
