

Accessing Score Reports for Parents

School districts access score reports for tests taken in Kansas through the Kite Educator Portal. Each school district is responsible for determining how best to provide those reports to students and parents. Some provide paper copies to parents at the end of the school year, while others provide the reports electronically. Please check with your school district to receive instructions on obtaining your student's results.