

Test Security Validation

Once you have completed the Test Security and Ethics Training you must complete a survey found on the HELP tab in the Educator Portal. This survey is required to validate completion of training and verification that you will abide by the test security and ethics policies outlined in the training.

The survey will open one week after the training materials are posted.